

THE AMERICAN LAND
SOVEREIGNTY PROTECTION ACT

HON. GEORGE P. RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, as a cosponsor of H.R. 901, the American Land Sovereignty Protection Act, I am confident that the bill makes a firm commitment to protecting America's public lands against overreaching international bureaucracies, like the United Nations. I particularly commend Chairman DON YOUNG for his leadership on this bill.

My district in California includes three national parks—Yosemite, Kings Canyon, and Sequoia. Therefore, any question of threatened sovereignty over public lands and its potential impact on adjoining private property is of critical concern to me and my constituents. The United Nations should not be operating in our backyard in the absence of congressional oversight. H.R. 901 reasserts Congress' constitutional role in the making of rules and regulations governing lands belonging to the United States and its people.

It is arrogant for the United Nations to believe that undermining the United States' hard won sovereignty is in the best interest of world peace. Preserving every measure of U.S. sovereignty is crucial to maintaining American leadership abroad and at home. I urge the House to pass H.R. 901.

HONORING CLARA PADILLA
ANDREWS

HON. ELIZABETH FURSE

OF OKLAHOMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Ms. FURSE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month to recognize an outstanding individual, a constituent, and friend of mine in the First Congressional District of Oregon, Ms. Clara Padilla Andrews. Ms. Andrews has dedicated her life to serving others.

Ms. Andrews is the owner and publisher of the El Hispanic News, a bilingual English/Spanish weekly community newspaper in Oregon. Previously, Ms. Andrews has served as a Community and Family Services integration of services supervisor and the Hispanic services coordinator for Multnomah County in Portland. Through her tenure with the county, she demonstrated her strong will, dedication, and commitment to sharing her talents and knowledge to promote networking and partnerships. Her ability as a community organizer and strong encouragement of project collaboration were essential ingredients in the work she did and continues to do in creating a better society for all.

Ms. Andrews is known for her behind-the-scenes advocacy on behalf of disenfranchised Hispanic families in Multnomah County. She was instrumental in obtaining monetary support to staff positions at three high schools to reduce the Hispanic student dropout rate.

She was also essential in the renovation of the Galaxy apartment complex. This cluster of apartments in their original condition were a northeast Portland neighborhood eyesore in deplorable condition with a prevalence of drugs and prostitution, crime, and poverty.

Today the Galaxy apartments are the Villa de Clara Vista apartments named in honor the Hacienda Community Development Corp. and recruited board members to spearhead the renovation effort to make affordable family housing available. The project today also includes a one-stop center for coordinated social services for area occupants. This project now serves as a national model.

Ms. Andrews has worked at all levels of government. Her civic involvement is admirable, as she served as the secretary of state for New Mexico from 1983 to 1986 and was the highest ranking Latina elected official at that time. When Ms. Andrews lost her granddaughter, Susana Gurule, to cancer, she founded the Susana Maria Gurule Foundation which focuses its efforts on increasing the number of minority volunteers for the National Marrow Donor Program registry. As a result of her work, she has also been named to the National Marrow Donor Program board.

Ms. Andrews is a 1986 recipient of a Congressional Hispanic Caucus Distinguished Service Award, the 1994 Doernbecker Hospital Hero's Award, Executive Women in State Government Distinguished Award, and several others. She has also been named 1 of the 100 Most Influential Hispanics four times.

Ms. Andrews is an exemplary citizen. Her lifetime of achievements and contributions to making society a better place for all serves as a model for all of us to learn from and follow. In recognition of National Hispanic Heritage month, it is my honor to recognize my friend, Ms. Clara Padilla Andrews.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO JUDITH MAY COOK

HON. PATRICK J. KENNEDY

OF RHODE ISLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Mr. KENNEDY of Rhode Island. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor an exemplary citizen and beloved public servant, Judith May Cook. Her endless contributions to the small community of Little Compton deserve proper recognition as she prepared to retire from her position as town clerk.

Judith was born to Clarence F. and Lucille Hambly on November 25, 1947. At 29 years old she began her distinguished career as a public servant. On April 1, 1976, Judith was first appointed to fill the unexpired term of retiree, Olive R. Kneeland, as treasurer of Little Compton. She committed her invaluable efforts to this office for 6 years and her hard work and dedication were not soon forgotten. After the tragic death of Philip B. Wilbur, the town clerk, Judith was appointed to fill his unexpired term. Since her appointment on December 4, 1986, she has run unopposed in every election for this position. Besides fulfilling the duties of her appointments, Judith was elected to participate on the town's budget committee for a term and a half. Ms. Cook has played a vital role in the government's stability and financial security of the small community of Little Compton.

Little Compton is a sparsely settled, seaside community populated by only 3,367 permanent residents. While the town entertains an influx of summer residents, the economy does not rely on tourism, but agriculture is its largest significant component. Little Compton has remained free of many of the political and economic pressures of the 20th century. In a town that celebrates its natural evolution as much as its picturesque landscape, a defining citizen like Judith May Cook proves to be a true role model.

When Judith May Cook retires on January 1, 1998, it will be a great loss for the community of Little Compton. Her professional success and dedicated service will always stand as a model of commitment for which we may strive to emulate. I ask my colleagues to join me to salute and thank Judith for her years of outstanding public service.

PERMANENT LEGAL RESIDENCY FOR JESSICA KOCH

HON. LINDSEY O. GRAHAM

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Mr. GRAHAM. Mr. Speaker, today, I introduced a bill crucial to Jessica Koch, a high school senior in my district. This bill will provide for the permanent legal residency of this well-rounded, ambitious girl whose world has been irrevocably changed after recently discovering her status as an illegal immigrant.

Jessica came to this country with a tourist visa in 1981. Shortly thereafter, when she was 18 months old, she was abandoned by her biological mother, the only parent she had ever known. Fortunately, she was taken into the caring home of David and Diane Miller, who were awarded legal custody of her when she was 5. Oblivious of her status as an illegal immigrant, the Millers raised her, supported her, and cared for her as one of their own. It was not until this year that Jessica's life and hopes for a successful future were turned upside-down.

On August 13, Jessica went to replace a lost Social Security card that the Millers obtained for her when they were given custody. She was stunned when she was denied a card and was told she was an illegal immigrant. Until that moment Jessica took pride in acting as a responsible citizen by working part-time while in school and registering to vote. Now, upon learning of her illegal status, she was forced to stop working to help support herself.

Because Jessica came to this country as an infant and became a member of the Miller family at a young age, she was raised with the impression that she was an adopted member of the Miller family and that she was a U.S. citizen. This is a case to which Congress can bring a happy resolution. By introducing this bill, I am hopeful that Jessica can remain in the United States, the only country she calls home.

IN RECOGNITION OF CAPTAIN
PACKARD'S NAVAL INTEL-LIGENCE TREATISE

HON. JAMES P. MORAN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Mr. MORAN of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, Capt. Wyman H. Packard, U.S. Navy (Retired), a constituent of mine from Arlington, has spent the past three decades diligently compiling the first public history of U.S. Naval Intelligence. Today, the result of his effort is a joint publication of the Office of Naval Intelligence and the Naval Historical Center titled "A Century of Naval Intelligence."

Captain Packard's undertaking was done without remuneration from the U.S. Government. Rather, he chose to demonstrate that history repeats itself and we have a tendency of going in a circle under the guise of progress. This book will serve as a textbook for the Naval Intelligence School and will provide a starting point for future historical studies. This administrative history studies how the discipline and bureaucracy of naval intelligence evolved.

Most of Captain Packard's research comes from firsthand experiences. He participated in five major sea engagements during World War II, including Midway, the Coral Sea, and the Solomons. He also served aboard the USS Hornet from the time it was launched and through its brief but heroic history until it was sunk in the Pacific.

This book clearly demonstrates the importance of naval intelligence to the U.S. national security during peace and war and is a valuable reference for defense professionals.

100-MILE DIABETES WALK

HON. WILLIAM J. COYNE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Mr. COYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a truly remarkable group of individuals from western Pennsylvania.

This year marks the 20th annual Walk to Beat Diabetes. Each year, Mr. Robert Mander, a postal worker from Carapiscus, PA, leads a small band of dedicated volunteers on a 100-mile walk from Erie, PA, to Pittsburgh to raise money for diabetes research. The walk will begin this year on October 10 and end on October 12.

Mr. Mander started this project 20 years ago after his daughter was diagnosed with juvenile diabetes. His personal experience with this terrible disease motivated him to begin raising money to support diabetes research.

Each year, Mr. Mander and his fellow walkers cover the 100 miles between Erie and Pittsburgh over the course of 3 grueling days. A number of generous sponsors provide food, lodging, supplies, and clothing for the volunteers. Many family members, contributors, and well-wishers join the walkers for the last few miles. The walk ends at the McKnight Siebert Shopping Center in Township, where a raffle is held for sports memorabilia to raise more money for diabetes research. This year, the walkers hope to raise $20,000 for diabetes research.

Mr. Mander is a Vietnam veteran who is active in the V.F.W. He serves on the board of directors of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the American Diabetes Association, and he has raised money for arthritis research and the March of Dimes as well as for the ADA.

Mr. Speaker, I salute these brave volunteers, and I want to especially commend Mr. Robert Mander for 20 years of unstinting dedication to this worthy cause.

SMALL BUSINESS PROGRAMS RE-AUTHORIZATION AND AMEND-MENTS ACT OF 1997

SPEECH OF

HON. FRANK A. LoBIONDO

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, September 29, 1997

Mr. LoBIONDO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 2261, the Small Business Programs Reauthorization and Amendments Act. The Small Business Administration provides the principal form of disaster relief for communities struck by tragedy. On August 21 and 22, 13½ inches of rain fell in Atlantic County in my district in a matter of hours. This downpour ended up causing $54 million in estimated damage, impacting more than 5,000 homes and businesses. Because a bulk of the area is not located in a flood plain, many of the impacted families and business owners did not have flood insurance.

Last week, the President declared Atlantic County a disaster area making the area eligible for Federal assistance. A bulk of this assistance, which is made up of low-interest loans for home repairs and property and inventory damage, will come from the Small Business Administration. The people benefiting from this aid are small business owners and hard-working families, many of which were told they did not have to have flood insurance because they were located in a low-risk area. Where do these people turn when suddenly they have to come up with thousands upon thousands of dollars to replace such essential items as water heaters, washer/dryers, and furnaces? Many of them turn to the Small Business Administration. As we speak, representatives from the Small Business Administration are holding workshops in my district for individuals interested in applying for low-interest disaster loans. They have issued more than 2,000 loan applications and have already made several approvals since they started taking applications last week.

The Small Business Administration fulfills a vital need for disaster victims. For individuals and businesses that cannot recoup their losses through insurance, the SBA provides a safety net that enables people to put their lives back together after a devastating natural disaster. I am proud to support H.R. 2261 and I hope we can secure swift passage of this vital legislation.

REAUTHORIZATION OF THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK

SPEECH OF

HON. BILL ARCHER

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, October 6, 1997

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 1370) to reauthorize the Export-Import Bank of the United States:

Mr. ARCHER. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in support of reauthorization of the Export-Import Bank of the United States. This institution is absolutely vital to our Nation in order to keep American companies and workers competitive in the world marketplace.

My philosophy on trade has always been that we should take every step possible to make it free and fair for all countries, and that purchases should be made based on quality, price, and service. I firmly believe that, under such circumstances, American companies will excel. Unfortunately, as my colleagues know, this is not always the case today. In a perfect world, France, Germany, Japan, England and our other competitors would not provide unfair advantages to their exporters. If that were the case, we would be having a different debate today. We would not need the Exim Bank to level the playing field.

However, the fact remains that the Exim Bank finances American exports where commercial financing is simply not available or competitive and where, without government action, the sale would be lost. The Exim Bank does this at a low cost to the taxpayers and with a tremendous positive impact on the American economy. Last year alone, Exim Bank supported over 200,000 high quality American jobs.

It is also important to note that the Exim Bank is not a giveaway program. The Bank must be repaid every dollar it lends, and has had a default rate of only 1.0 percent over the last 15 years. This is significantly better than our own commercial banks have performed over the same period of time.

Last week I met with Mr. James Harmon, the new president of Exim Bank. Frankly, I was impressed with his determination to institute management and policy changes at the Bank that will make it an even better value for the taxpayers. He has some great innovative ideas that will help make American companies even more competitive in the 21st century. I look forward to working with him and I urge my colleagues to vote against unilateral economic disarmament and vote in favor of reauthorizing the Export-Import Bank.

IN HONOR OF DR. H. BEECHER
HICKS, JR.

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 7, 1997

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise in praise of Rev. Dr. H. Beecher Hicks, who is the senior minister at Metropolitan Baptist Church in Washington, DC and one of the Nation's great preachers. He is a brilliant spiritual leader, a
